

Yes I Will

Eddie Hoagland, Mia Fieldes, Jonathan Smith

Key: E
structure

INTRO      A       E   |      B       C#m

                  A            E                                    B                                    C#m
I count on one thing      The same God that never fails

                  A            E                                    B                                    C#m
Will not fail me now      You won't fail me now

                  A            E                                    B                                    C#m
In the waiting      The same God who's never late

                  A            E                                    B                                    C#m
Is working all things out      You're working all things out

CHORUS

A            E                                    B                                    C#m
Yes I will lift You high      In the lowest valley

A            E                                    Bsus                                    B
Yes I will bless Your Name

A            E                                    B                                    C#m
Yes I will sing for joy      When my heart is heavy

A            E                                    B                                    C#m                                    (E)
All my days,      yes I will

BRIDGE

                  A            E                                    B                                    C#m
I choose to praise      To glorify, glorify

                  A            E                                    Bsus                                    B
The Name of all names      That nothing can stand against